INTRODUCTION.

THE present volume is the fifth in the series of calendars of Lancashire Wills proved in the Archdeaconry of Richmond. The earlier portions, all of which were edited by the late Lieut.-Colonel Henry Fishwick, F.S.A., are 1457-1680 (vol. 10), 1681-1748 (vol. 13), 1748-1792 (vol. 23), 1793-1812 (vol. 66). It is hoped to complete the series to the date of the Probate Act (1857) in a subsequent volume.

For particulars of the Archdeaconry Court and the location of the documents, reference should be made to the introduction of volumes 10, 13 and 23.

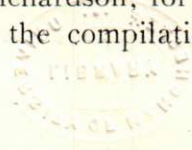

The present calendar, covering the years 1813 to 1837 inclusive, has been compiled from the Act Books only, reference to the original documents only being made in a few cases where the reading was doubtful. It should be noted that these Act Books are a source of information additional to that given in the will, namely, the date of the testator's death, and the value of the personality. The calendar follows closely the system adopted in the earlier portions ; it includes all wills filed in the Deaneries of Amounderness and Furness together with those wills in the Kendal and Lonsdale Deaneries relating to Lancashire estates. The strict alphabetical order of surnames has not been rigorously applied, so that minor variants in spelling could be grouped together in order of christian name. Other variants, differing more widely in spelling, are cross-referenced. In cases of the same christian and surname, the items are arranged in chronological order. A number of the more usual abbreviations have been used to economise in printing space, and a list of these is given immediately after the introduction.

In the period covered by this volume, only one will was proved in the Peculiar Court of Halton, namely that of William Bradshaw Bradshaw, Lord of the Manor of Halton. His will was proved 14th August, 1815, since when the Court has ceased this function.

Unlike the earlier volumes, indexes of places and occupations have been included, in the hope that they will make the volume more generally useful. The index of places occasionally provides additional information, and where identification is difficult, the reader is advised to consult it. Among the occupations occurs a "maltstress," presumably a lady who made malt, while the title "Master of the King's Boat" applied to a resident of Rampside, whets the appetite for further information.

The thanks of the Record Society are due to Lord Merriman, President of the High Court of Justice (Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division) for permission to publish this calendar. The editor wishes to record his thanks to the Lancaster District Registrar, Mr. E. J. B. Dixon, and the Chief Clerk, Mr. T. Richardson, for their kindness and assistance during the compilation of this volume.

Index Locorum.

Minor names are indexed without further identification if they occur in J. P. Smith's Genealogists' Atlas of Lancashire; otherwise the parish, or less frequently, the township is added.

Places outside Lancashire are indexed according to the parish, or, if overseas, according to the state or country.

When a name occurs more than once on the same page, the number of times is given in parentheses.
